Student Career Connection Liability Release

I am the parent or guardian of the student whose name appears above and I have authority to make legal decisions for the benefit of this child.

I recognize that work-based learning opportunities of this nature have a risk of lost or stolen property, injury or even death during transportation to, from, on-site, and during the activities. I, on behalf of the child and for myself, waive any and all claims of liability arising from the child's participation in this opportunity, including claims against the following parties (and their employees, contractors and volunteers): Student Career Connection, the school and school district that the child attends, and the employer/organization who hosted the work-based learning opportunity.

I agree to defend, hold harmless, and indemnify the following parties (and their employees, contractors and volunteers): Student Career Connection, the school and school district from and against any and all claims of liability that derive from claims that I or my child make against any other party arising from this work-based learning opportunity.

I understand that transportation is the student's responsibility unless provided by the school.
